

Periodical Review March 2010 – No. 2

This report summarizes the most prominent events brought up in the Jihadi online forums in the first half of March 2010:

New publications

Audio and video tapes:

- The Jihadi "As-Sahab" media institute published a video clip titled "A Call to Arms" by Adam Yahiyeh Gadahn, one of the most prominent Al-Qaeda spokespersons, an American who has converted to Islam. In the video, Gadahn calls to the Muslims serving in Western armies, to emulate the actions of Nidal Malik Hassan, who murdered 13 American soldiers at a military base in Texas on November 2009.<sup>1</sup> It should be noted that on March 8th 2010 it has been reported that he has been apprehended by the Coalition Forces in northern Pakistan, but it was later revealed that another person with a similar name has been apprehended.
- The Jihadi "As-Sahab" media institute publishes a taped interview with Abu Dujaanah Al-Khorasani, the Jordanian citizen who carried out the suicide attack at the CIA base in Afghanistan at the end of December 2009.<sup>2</sup> In the interview, Abu Dujaanah claimed that the Jordanian Intelligence is involved in the elimination of Abdullah Azzam and Abu Musab Al-Zarqawi.<sup>3</sup>
- The "Shabakat Al-Mujahideen Al-Electroniya" Jihadi forum published links to a video titled "The Taliban – the Masters of this Era".<sup>4</sup>

- The "Al-Furqan" Jihadi media institute published a video titled "A Snake has Awoken – part 1", connected with Al-Qaeda in Iraq.<sup>5</sup>
- The "Shabakat Al-Mujahideen Al-Electroniya" Jihadi forum published links to a video, dedicated to the soldiers of the Islamic State of Iraq (ISI).<sup>6</sup>
- The "Al-Ansar" Jihadi media institute published a video documenting the launching of a missile on behalf of the Iraqi Salafi-Jihadi group, "Jama'at Ansar Al-Sunna" towards an armored C5K American vehicle at the Diyala Province in Iraq.<sup>7</sup>

The group was founded in 2003 by former activists from the Kurdish terrorist group, "Ansar Al-Islam". The group openly supported the September 11, 2001 attacks executed by Osama bin Laden. After the toppling of Saddam Hussein's regime in March 2003, it stood beside Al-Qaeda. The group is considered loyal to Al-Qaeda and cooperates to a great extent on a military level with the "Islamic State of Iraq".

- The "Shabakat Al-Mujahideen Al-Electroniya" Jihadi forum published links for downloading an audio tape by Abu Musab Al-Zarqawi, titled "Ar-Rafidah<sup>8</sup> – Allah has rejected them".<sup>9</sup>

- The "Ansar Al-Mujahideen" Jihadi forum publishes a video in Russian titled "The Shame of the Salafia Preachers – Part 2".<sup>18</sup>

- A video portraying 'Tandzim Al-Qoidah Indonesia' was uploaded by Markaz Media Al-Ufuq.<sup>19</sup>

Magazines:

- A first time exposure: a periodical Jihadi magazine called "Al-Ikhlaas" (8 pages long), dealing in matters on Jihad and the Mujahideen, distributed only to the field levels, came out for the first time on the internet (there are links to issue no. 16). According to the reports in the forums, up to now it was not published publicly for security considerations, but from now on will be published on the Jihadi forums. The magazine is not designed in a sophisticated format like the rest of the magazines published by Jihadi organizations. It contains articles and statements from the past of Jihadi

Reports from the field

Afghanistan-Pakistan:

- New photographs of the Mujahideen in Waziristan.<sup>31</sup>

Iraq:

- The Amir of the "Islamic State of Iraq" publishes an official announcement warning the Iraqi residents not to participate in the upcoming elections in Iraq and not come to the election centers.<sup>32</sup>

The flyer distributed to the residents of Iraq in various cities:
"My Muslim brother, I know that your vote in the heretic elections or for the heretic constitution is a loss in this world and the next. Refrain from going to the election centers..."

<sup>31</sup> <http://www.atahadi.com/vb/showthread.php?t=13696>

Furthermore, the Jihadi forums dealt with the question, what will be Iraq's fate after the elections. The "Hanein" Jihadi forum wondered whether the elections will succeed in uniting the Iraq people; whether the elections are the solution to problem of violence in Iraq; and whether the Sunni will succeed in uniting, or will the internal conflicts be an obstacle. The surfers respond that there is a religious prohibition on taking part in the elections. They further claims that the elections will not change the situation in Iraq and agree that "its fate is in the hands of the Mujahideen".<sup>33</sup>

- The "Hanein" Jihadi forum publishes an announcement on the founding of a new Jihadi organization in Iraq – the "Jihad Al-Morabeteen Brigades", founded at the end of February 2010. The headquarters of the new organization are in Baghdad. The organization has two internet addresses: jihadmorabeteen.jeeran.com and www.jihadmorabeteen.co.cc, as well as two email addresses: jihadmorabeteen@yahoo.com and jihadmorabeteen@gmail.com. Apparently this organization was founded after a split in another Jihadi organization, active in Iraq – "Jaysh Al-Mujahideen".<sup>34</sup>

The Arabian Peninsula:

- In the past two weeks, a decline has been noted in the amount of reports on Jihadi forums on the events in Yemen. The various forums still bring informative reports on the happenings inside Yemen, in terms of the battle the Yemenite Forces are waging against Al-Qaeda strongholds across the country, but the volume of the dealings in the matter by the various writers has decreased significantly in comparison to previous months.

The Maghreb:

- Sheikh Ibrahim Walad Mahmud, one of the Salafi-Jihadists imprisoned in Mauritania, dismisses with contempt the government's attempts to bring the Salafi-Jihadists back from their violent way by way of an intensive dialogue. According to him, he will continue to believe in the righteousness of his path and in shirking anyone opposing the Sharia, which includes viewing the regime as a heretic regime. He adds that he prefers sitting in jail for a long time over renouncing the faith in the righteousness of his path.<sup>35</sup> It should be noted that this strategy succeeded in Libya and in the past in Egypt, and its purpose is to neutralize the organization by the "recruitment" of its leaders.

- Al-Qaeda in the Islamic Maghreb publishes an announcement on the release of the kidnapped Spanish citizen, Alicia Gamez, who was in captivity for 100 days in Mauritania due to her conversion to Islam and in face of her poor health. The announcement contains a demand addressed to the Spanish government to hurry and comply with the organization's demands in view of this gesture of goodwill, and places the responsibility for the remaining captives on its shoulders.<sup>36</sup>

- On March 7th 2010, Al-Qaeda in the Islamic Maghreb published an official announcement titled "An open missive to the teachers on strike". In this missive, Abu Abd Al-Ila Ahmad, head of the Political Committee, addresses the teachers on strike and identifies with them. According to him, the teachers are the most deprived sector in the Algerian population after the Mujahideen, discriminated against by the government. In his eyes, hurting the teachers is akin to hurting the youth as in the absence of a guide there is no one to guide the youth to the righteous path. Therefore, the matter of the teachers should be helped and their demands supported.<sup>37</sup>

- One of the surfers states that in western Africa there is instability and lack of trust between the United States and the West and the countries in that region, following Mali's failed management of the crisis regarding the French hostage, kidnapped by Al-Qaeda in the Maghreb. It should be noted that Mali agreed to release 4 Islamic prisoners in exchange for him. The surfer explains what are the requirements for the upcoming period: moving to west Africa to join the organization's ranks there; attacking American, western and French targets in this area; helping the Mujahideen on the internet by publishing photographs of targets in that region, including distances and coordinates for the benefit of fighters in the field.<sup>38</sup>
- AQIM has taken responsibility for a suicide car bomb attack against a Nigerian Army post claiming the lives of many soldiers. According to the claim, the truck was loaded with 600kg of explosives.<sup>39</sup>
- A surfer protests there aren't enough in-depth analyses on the situation in the "Great Islamic Maghreb" region, despite its importance, role and stature in Muslim history. He reminds this is the only region where the Mujahideen are not faced with a foreign occupation, a fact that in his mind increases the difficulty of the situation. He mentions several milestones: the cleansing of those without faith from the ranks of the Mujahideen; a fundamental evolution in the military activity of Al-Qaeda in the Maghreb, that is, in the past the activity focused on the mountain slopes, the planes and the woods, but now the organization went on to carry out operations in the capital – Algiers and in other cities, and furthermore – the activity went beyond the boundaries of Algeria. In the media aspect there was an improvement and quality publications were coming out. Many youths join the organization's ranks in Algeria.<sup>40</sup>

- A news report dated March 9th, 2010 claiming that three Al-Qaeda operatives were arrested in North Africa by US DEA agents who were posing as FARC guerillas trying to transfer cocaine through the Sahara, was posted on the forums. The report claims that the operatives were collecting a tax for AQIM. The forum members dismissed the report as false as the organization doesn't deal with drugs.<sup>41</sup> It should be noted that western Africa and the Sahara are on one of the main drug smuggling routes from South Africa to Europe.
- Publications by Al-Qaeda in the Maghreb are available for downloading to cell phones.<sup>42</sup>

Al-Sham Region (Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and the Palestinian Territories):

- The "Shabakat Al-Mujahideen Al-Electroniya" Jihadi forum published Abu Muhammad Al-Maqdisi' response to several questions dealing with the law regarding fighting the Hamas movement. Al-Maqdisi states that the campaign in the Palestinian territories is not against the Hamas but against the Jews, despite the fact the Hamas Security Forces launched a campaign against the path of Jihad.<sup>43</sup>

- The "Shabakat Al-Mujahideen Al-Electroniya" Jihadi forum published a series of advice the people of Palestine should implement in order to solidify Al-Qaeda's position in the Palestinian territories. Following are some of the advice given in the forum:<sup>44</sup>
  1. Practice fighting, explosives and their detonation by remote control, the manufacturing of rockets and smuggling Mujahideen.
  2. Prepare yourselves to receiving Mujahideen and equip oneself with food for an extended period.
  3. Focus and be precise with Ayman Al-Zawahiri's speeches.
  4. The brothers must organize in squads separate from one another. Each squad will be comprised of 5 people, who will meet at least once a week.
  5. Be careful not to open a front with the Hamas, as they are our brothers and our support.
  6. The Sinai Bedouin must not ignore the responsibility resting on their shoulders.
- A surfer asks whether there is a possibility that Israel will be bombed by Grad rockets from Sinai. Surfers remind that the Mujahideen have succeeded in attacking vacation facilities in Taba, and therefore there is no reason rockets cannot reach Israel.<sup>45</sup>
- An official announcement by the "Jama'at Ansar Al-Sunna" in Jerusalem on the launching of two missiles towards the Eshkol settlement.<sup>46</sup>

Africa

- A report from Mogadishu that Al-Qaeda veteran Fazul Abdullah Mohammed, alleged mastermind of the 1998 U.S. embassy bombings in East Africa, has taken over of Somalia's Al-Shabab. Forum member, censored31, states that more bad news for the unbelievers will be coming soon.<sup>47</sup>
- The Nigerian "Boko Haram" group, also called "Taliban – Nigeria", announced it is joining Al-Qaeda and threatened to avenge the murder of some of its members, including its leader, Muhammad Yusuf, in a series of explosions across the country.<sup>48</sup> It should be noted that for several weeks the Jihadi forums are reporting extensively on the events in Nigeria and calling for Jihadi activity over there.

The West and the rest of the world

- A surfer calls to the Muslims in the United States to remember their duty towards the Muslims in Islamic countries, as they ask for their help in the injustice perpetrated against them at the hands of the United States that has conquered Muslim countries and hurt their sanctity, as in Iraq and Afghanistan. He calls them to attack American military bases in the U.S and to kill American soldiers. He reminds them that in the U.S there are many stores selling weapons and explosives are available, and therefore spurs them to help the Muslims and Islam.<sup>49</sup>
- A surfer addresses a "message to the Netherlands, Denmark and Sweden – the Last Call". This message includes in fact threats against the three: "Supporters of Jihad around the Islamic world will not sit idly by in face of the declared war of the three countries against Islam and its believers and in face of the cursing of the Prophet and the attack against him by use of caricatures

Otherwise, he threatens the Mujahideen will target these countries and targets belonging to them across the world. He also calls to the Muslims in Europe to prepare for a comprehensive conflict with these countries, as according to him it is a duty to kill those attacking the Prophet. He urges them to organize cells to go out against “the enemies of Islam”. He further calls the Muslims in the Islamic countries to boycott these countries, not to trade with them and not purchase from them or sell them. Upon the expiration of the month, he pleads with the Muslims to attack targets belonging to these countries in the Islamic countries and to take their citizens hostage.<sup>50</sup>

General reports

- The Jihadi forums reported that the Indonesian authorities killed the no. 1 wanted man in Indonesia, Dulmatin, one of the leaders of the “Al-Jama’a Al-Islamiya” in the country, and the one who was behind the terrorist attack in Bali in 2002.<sup>51</sup>
- A surfer calls to other surfers to contact him privately to launch a campaign against the attack on the veil in Egypt. The campaign will include publication against the attack on the veil in all the Egyptian sites. One of the surfers states the matter concerns all the Muslims and not only Egypt, and therefore there is no point in contacting the surfer privately, but rather circulate this publicly.<sup>52</sup> Following the announcement made by Kaddafi, Libya’s ruler, that Switzerland is a heretic country, several surfers call Italy and France to allow

- Calls from the surfers at the "Al-Tahadi" Jihadi forum, to take revenge against the Jordanian Intelligence following Abu Dujaanah Al-Khorasani's statement that Jordan contributed to a great extent to the elimination of Abu Musab Al-Zarqawi and Abdullah Azzam.<sup>54</sup>

- One of the surfers at the "Ansar Al-Mujahideen" Arabic Jihadi forum asks to avenge the last electronic attack against the Jihadi forums, which succeeded in shutting down several forums, especially the "Al-Faloja" forum. According to him: "we do not wish the shutting down of the Jihadi forums to be ignored or just engender happiness when they return." In his opinion, an electronic counter-attack should be initiated, which he calls "Abu Dujaanah Al-Khorasani's Invasion". The surfer even lists the targets of the retaliatory attack:<sup>55</sup>

- a. Revenge for the attack against the Jihadi forums.
- b. According to the surfer, one of the main reasons to attack the Jihadi forums stemmed from the desire to prevent the distribution of the movie on Abu Dujaanah Al-Khorasani. Therefore, the surfer claims, one should continue the distribution of the abovementioned movie in a large number of forums and websites.
- c. Depicting Jordanian Intelligence in the shameful light by publishing Abu Dujaanah's statement against Jordanian Intelligence.

- d. Shattering the myth of the CIA and the Jordanian Intelligence.
- The last will of Abu Mus'ab Sayyid to the Jihadi Forums was posted. Abu Mus'ab was apparently from the Maldives and was a member on several forums. A forum member posts a letter with his biography.<sup>56</sup>
  - A report from the BBC regarding the refusal of two Muslim women to go through the body scanners at UK airports was posted. A forum member states that small airports haven't installed them yet.<sup>57</sup>
  - A report from Indonesia was posted on the Ansar Al-Mujahideen English forum in which a group under the name of 'Al-Qaeda Serambi Mekkah (Al-Qaeda in Aceh)' claims to be the target for the recent Indonesian police crack down against insurgents.<sup>58</sup>

Miscellaneous

- One of the surfers at the "Hanein" Jihadi forum refers to the statement made by Abu Yahya Al-Libi, claiming the Yemenite Army is America's yes man.<sup>59</sup> According to the surfer, Libi was wrong in his harsh words, as the Yemen people will not accept them.<sup>60</sup>
- Al-Mujahideen Electronic Network posted a compilation of Anwar Al-Awlaki's recent sermons.<sup>61</sup>
- A surfer calls against anyone vilifying Al-Qaeda. He addresses all those with military knowledge such as ambushes, suicide attacks and the manufacturing of explosives, to teach the other surfers using the internet, in order to fight

- A surfer criticizes the other surfers protesting and complaining on the conduct of the forum supervisors. He explains they do not receive a fee for their work, on the contrary – they invest their own funds so as to continue the hoisting of the flag of Jihad, and they too have families and other occupations. A surfer suggests facilitating their work by having the forum members take part in the burden and help develop it. In fact, there will be a division of roles – one group will report to the supervisors of repeating subjects or inappropriate subjects, another group will provide news and other groups will check links that do not work or reports without a source. One of the Al-Faloja forum supervisors responds: every post on the forum is read carefully. The active supervisors at the time consult amongst themselves all the time. They pay attention to every comment, but do not always agree that a certain correspondence is inappropriate even though surfer believes it is.<sup>63</sup>
- A surfer addresses the Mujahideen and the Muslims around the world and explains that the British BBC channel has crossed the line in its war against the Muslims and is hosting in its broadcasts, anti-Islamic entities who attacked the honor of the Prophet, Islam and the Koran. He calls to the Muslims not to cooperate with the channel, and to the Mujahideen to "take action as is required against the channel's offices and its people, take hostage the channel's crew in every country and demand an official broadcast apology for the Muslims." In summary, he calls to fight the station.<sup>64</sup>

According to the surfer, the above mentioned initiative has proven itself in the period between June 2009 and the beginning of 2010. The surfer wondered whether it will be possible to realize two main objectives using this propaganda activity:<sup>66</sup>
  1. Reaching anyone surfing the internet, meaning – an attempt to expand the target audience surfing the net.
  2. Disproving the enemy's false propaganda and spreading the truth as it really is.
