

The 11th World Summit on Counter Terrorism

September 13-14, 2011

Herzliya, Israel

The impact of the "Arab Spring" on migration processes

This workshop will examine the issue of Muslim migration from Muslim states to Western countries and the effect and result of the revolutions in the Middle East and Arab states on these waves of immigration. The workshop will examine the challenges which such immigration poses to Western countries, the dangers, and the possible ways of relating to it.
