

The 11th World Summit on Counter Terrorism

September 13-14, 2011

Herzliya, Israel

The role and the involvement of international organizations in regions of civil unrest (UN, NATO, Red Cross, etc...)

Against the backdrop of the involvement of NATO, various United Nations frameworks, the Red Cross and other international organizations, in revolutionary processes occurring in the Middle East and the Arab states, this workshop will examine the roles, challenges and dilemmas involved in these international organizations' activities in areas of tension, a lack of civilian stability, and war.

