Founded in 1996, the International Institute for Counter-Terrorism (ICT) is one of the leading academic institute for counter-terrorism in the world, facilitating international cooperation in the global struggle against terrorism. ICT is an independent think tank providing expertise in terrorism, counter-terrorism, homeland security, threat vulnerability and risk assessment, intelligence analysis and national security and defense policy.

The combined assets of ICT expertise within the academic framework of the Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy and Strategy at IDC Herzliya create opportunities that allow students to undertake a B.A. with a concentration in Homeland Security and Terror Studies as well as a M.A. in Government with specialization in Counter-Terrorism and Homeland Security Studies. These degree programs draw upon renowned faculty and researchers, creating a Homeland Securities program that is unique.

In addition, the ICT is offering Homeland Security Certificate Courses which offers highly acclaimed education curricula geared for individuals and organizations that interface with counter-terrorism, intelligence and security concerns, as well as special orientation courses tailored to first responders. The objective of these programs is to provide a deeper understanding of the strategy and psychology of terrorist networks, and to foster a greater awareness of issues related to international terrorism.

The course "Modern Terrorism and Counter-Terrorism Strategies" will address:

- The Suicide Terrorism Phenomenon
- Terrorism, the Media and Public Opinion
- Terrorism Strategy and Tactics
- State Sponsored Terrorism
- Global Jihad and Terrorist Network
- Democratic Dilemmas in Combating Terrorism
