

The 11th World Summit on Counter-Terrorism
September 13-14, 2011
Herzliya, Israel

Prosecution and Terrorism Financing – 10 years after 9/11

Ever since the 9/11 attacks, many countries' security and intelligence establishments have made it a top priority to locate and block the terror organizations' financing channels. These efforts have forced the terror organizations to seek new and unique financing channels. The workshop will examine the terror organizations' financing models, as well as the achievements and challenges in countering terrorism financing.