

Al-Tajammu: a Pro-Iranian International Platform to Leverage the Resistance Axis

Dr. Michael Barak

August 2021

Synopsis

The following document focuses on al-Tajammu al-Arabi wal-Islami li-Da'm Khiyyar al-Muqawma (“the Arab and Islamic Union Supporting the Resistance Option”) which serves as an international pro-Iranian platform to leverage the resistance axis against the US, Israel and their allies. This Lebanon based pro-Iranian organization, has tight connections with Hezbollah and Shiite militias in Iraq and Yemen, as well as with other terrorist organizations such as PIJ and the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine.

The organization managed to cultivate a global network whose members are radical organizations and persons, either religious or secular, who share a similar world view and interests the chief of which is a struggle with Imperialism and Zionism. As some members attested the network is meant to strengthen the resistance axis and weaken its enemies.

Preamble

al-Tajammu al-Arabi wal-Islami li-Da'm Khiar al-Muqawama (“the Arab and Islamic Union Supporting the Resistance Option”) (“al-Tajammu”) is a pro-Iranian Lebanese organization that maintains close contacts with Hezbollah and Shiite militias in Yemen and Iraq. The organization managed to cultivate a global network whose members are radical organizations and persons, either religious or secular, who share a similar world view and interests the chief of which is a struggle with Imperialism and Zionism. As some members attested the network is meant to strengthen the resistance axis and weaken its enemies¹.

Al-Tajammu was formed in Cairo at the end of July 2011 and its headquarters has been set in Beirut. Since its inception to date, his secretary general is one Yahya Ghaddar, a Lebanese doctor². Al-Tajammu has many branches across the Muslim and Arab world and among its members one can count Shiite militia activists such as the Iraqi “al-Nujba” and the Yemenite Houthi “Ansar Allah; Sunni terrorists such as PIJ activists and members of secular terrorist organizations such as the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine and the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine; opposition members of some of the Arab regimes; government officials, media and academia (see map below).

Further, al-Tajammu’s activity focuses on expanding its circle of supporters through cooperation with various organizations and schools of thought such as the Jordanian Muslim Brotherhood, Egyptian Nasserists, communists in Iraq, left wing supporters in the west and more.

² Ghaddar studied medicine in Toulouse, France. He heads a medical center bearing his name in the town of Hazmia in Mount Lebanon. For his clinic’s website see <http://ghaddarmedicalcenter.com>

Al-Tajammu has two logos:

The one on the right represents global resistance to imperialism and Zionism and desire to free the globes from their shackles and the one on the left uses the Dome of the Rock's photo as an expression of the global struggle for its liberation

Al-Tajammu portrays itself as a platform aimed at strengthening the resistance axis, inter alia, through propaganda and raising awareness to the American and Zionist subversion around the world. Its ideologic platform specifies its goals while highlighting armed resistance as a modus operandi against enemy forces, as follows:

1. Dissemination of resistance culture through advanced and developed programs in the fields of thought, education, propaganda, politics and more.
2. Building bridges of interaction and communication within the Muslim and Arab world on the basis of support for the resistance as a preferred means to liberate the occupied lands and building of national state on the basis of discourse, consciousness, and knowledge.
3. Concentrating effort and leveraging all capabilities for an existential struggle against the imperialism and the Zionist enemy without giving up the armed struggle.
4. Adopting reforms and change while striving for liberation, protecting the homeland and the citizens' honor, through the support of liberation movements.
5. "Commitment to the Palestinian issue as a central problem for the Arabs and Muslims; supporting the resistance activists in the occupied land; assisting the diaspora [Palestinian]; organizing youth parades by opening all the passages for them out of the need to realize the right of return and the liberation of Palestine from the river to the sea".
6. Concentrating efforts to revoke all agreement with the Zionists and presenting the negotiations with them in a shaming light.
7. Striving to settle disputes via a discourse within the various levels of the Arab Muslim society.
8. Investing national and Islamic efforts to create a safe climate for the resistance to the Zionist American imperialism³.

In recent years, al-Tajammu has reported of dozens of conferences it held in Beirut, attended by various branches members to discuss the resistance, in order to strengthen the ties among the branches, encourage cooperation and fortify the social network around the resistance axis. For example, al-Tajjamu held in September 2019 a solidarity conference in Beirut to support Kashmir, which was attended by the organization's Pakistani members led by the Pakistani religious scholar Shafkat Houssein Shirazi. In the opening session, Yahya Ghaddar claimed that Pakistan, like other areas in the middle east are subject to political, social, and economic shocks due to Zionist-American schemes intended to saw division and conflicts among Muslims. They all agreed that strengthening the resistance axis globally was the key for the revival of the Islamic nation and achieving significant victories over the enemies including the liberation of Palestine⁴. In February 2020, al-Tajjamu held a conference on Beirut on the Palestinian issue. Yahya Ghaddar clarified there that the conflict with Israel is not territorial but rather existential, therefore all the Palestinian factions must unite in order to liberate the entire territory of Palestine from the hands of the Zionists⁵.

Al-Tajjamu's Ties with Hezbollah

During the past few years al-Tajjamu held a few dozens of conferences to support the resistance axis, some were attended by senior Hezbollah officials. In July 2018, al-Tajjamu held a conference in Beirut on the importance of the struggle against the Deal of the Century which was attended by Sheikh 'Ataa Allah Hamud (deputy of the Palestine Affairs leader in Hezbollah)⁶. In November 2019, al-Tajjamu held a conference which was attended by Hassan Hubb Allah (the Hezbollah official in charge of Palestinian affairs) on the popular protests in Iraq and Lebanon wherein the attendees accused the US and Israel for being responsible for their eruption.⁷ In a conference held in February 2020 Hubb Allah stressed that the peaceful ways the Palestinian took to get their rights have failed to achieve anything and therefore the only way to assist the Palestinians, fight Trump's Deal of the Century and liberate the conquered lands is only through resistance and use of weapons⁸.

A prime expression of al-Tajjamu's pro-Iranian orientation was evident in January 2021 when a conference to commemorate the memorial of the assassination of Qassem Suleimani and Abu Mahdi al-Muhandis. The conference was attended by some 80 attendees among which many al-Tajjamu branch members and the above mentioned Hubb Allah. At the end of the conference the attendees stated that Suleimani's assassination was a war crime and therefore a series of steps need to take such as prosecuting the US government at the ICC, exact revenge on anyone who attacks members of the resistance axis, strengthen the cooperation with popular protest movements in UAE, Bahrain, Morocco, and Sudan to apply pressure to their government to terminate the normalization agreements, cease cooperation with Israel and more⁹.

Of note is also Maher Hamoud, a Sunni cleric serving as the secretary general of the Global Union of the Resistance's Clerics, an organization loyal to Iran and Hezbollah. Hamoud has close ties with al-Tajjamu. He attended dozens of conferences and expressed his support for the resistance axis and an armed activity vs. Israel, KSA and other pro-American regimes. For example, in a conference held in June 2019 on the Bahrain Conference and the Deal of the Century he praised the armed resistance to Israel¹⁰.

It should be noted, some of al-Tajjamu's branches held activities in to support Hezbollah and its activity vs. Israel. For example, al-Tajjamu's branch in Sweden praised Nasrallah and Hezbollah in September 2019 for their activity vs. Israel and their success to renew to the deterrence against Israel¹¹. Other events held by al-Tajjamu branches were attended by journalists working for Hezbollah's propaganda array. For example, in an al-Tajjamu conference held in Cairo in October 2019, Amer Nasr, an Egyptian journalist working for Hezbollah's al-Manar channel, was in attendance¹².

Al-Tajjamu's Ties with Shiite Militias

Iraqi al-Nujbaa Militia

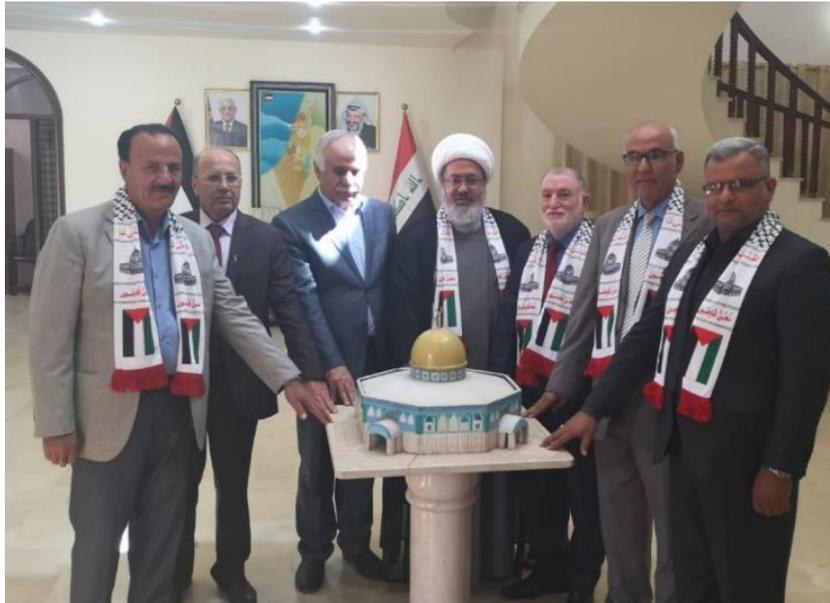

As mentioned, al-Tajjamu works to establish a social network, some members of which are Shiite militias loyal to Iran. Al-Tajjamu's Iraqi branch, headed by Dr. Yousuf al-Nasri, who doubles as deputy leader for the Iraqi Shiite militia al-Nujbaa, paid a visit to the Palestinian embassy in Baghdad in March 2019 to commemorate the Palestinian Day of the Land. During said meeting, the attendees discussed the centrality of the Palestinian problem, the need to cooperate with all Palestinian factions, concentrate effort to block normalization with Israel, a reopening of a Palestinian research center in Iraq and the need to maintain cooperation among all involved parties¹³. In December 2019, al-Masri attended an al-Tajjamu conference in Beirut where he accused the US and Israel of attempting to hurt resistance axis forces¹⁴.

Houthis in Yemen

Al-Tajjamu's branch in Yemen has Houthi members some of which hold government office. For example, Abdallah Ali Sabri, a member of al-Tajjamu's board of trustees in Yemen, serves as the Houthi ambassador in Syria and head of the Yemenite Media Personnel Association, a Yemenite propaganda entity close to the Houthi. In June 2019, al-Tajjamu held a conference in Beirut to show solidarity with Sabri following a targeted killing attempt that was attributed to the KSA, UAE and the Zionists. Among the speakers in that conference were members of Hezbollah propaganda apparatus such as Bahaa al-Nablusi, an al-Manar correspondent, Bathina Aliq, an al-Nur radio broadcaster. Additionally, the conference was attended by Ibrahim al-Dulaymi, director of al-Masira channel and member of the political council of the Yemenite Houthi Ansar Allah movement; Hamid Razek, an al-Masira correspondent and the person in charge of foreign affairs at Yemenite Media Personnel Association; Daoud Shihab, head of the PIJ propaganda office in Gaza. The participants in the conference demanded that an international inquiry committee will be formed to investigate the alleged Saudi “criminal involvement in Yemen”¹⁶. In January 2019 al-Tajammu held a conference in Latakiya (Syria) to show solidarity with the Yemenite people which was attended by Naif Ahmad al-Kanz, the former Houthi ambassador in Damascus and Yahya Ghaddar¹⁷.

Additional Actors

Al-Tajammu managed to forge ties with additional actors, either on the Muslim or the western worlds, who identify with its cause. For example, sheikh Zahir al-Jaiid, a member of the Islamic Labor Front, a subsidiary of the Muslim Brotherhood in Jordan, praised, in an al-Tajammu conference in July 2019 in Beirut, Hassan Nasrallah, Bashar al-Assad, the Houthi Ansar Allah and other activists' efforts to sabotage the Deal of the Century¹⁸. Western academics such as the Australian Tim Anderson, who is an al-Tajammu member, criticized the UK's decision to designate Hezbollah as a terrorist organization; Similarly, Paul Larudee, an American academic and an al-Tajammu member, supports Hamas, participated in the Gaza flotilla in 2010, and advocates for Hezbollah.

¹⁷ Khayr al-Umma, Vol. 10, January 2019, pp.17-21.

¹⁸ Khayr al-Umma, Vol. 16, July 2019, pp.8-9.

It is reasonable to assume that al-Tajammu has ties with Venezuelan diplomats, thanks to the Syrian regime's ties with the Venezuelan one. On July 8th, 2019, Yahya Ghaddar and members of al-Tajammu in Syria attended a party held in one of Damascus' hotels to commemorate the Venezuelan Independence Day. At the party, al-Tajammu's members praised the Venezuelan president Maduro's efforts to fight the American hegemony and global imperialism. Naif Ahmad al-Kanz, the former Houthi ambassador in Damascus, also attended that party¹⁹.

In summation, it is evident that al-Tajammu serves as an international platform to spread the ideas of resistance to the US, Israel, KSA, Bahrain and other pro-western regimes who are perceived as threatening the Iranian interests. It seems that Hezbollah uses it to disseminate propaganda, raise funds and recruit activists. Far worse is the fact that the international community does not pay attention to this network's existence and its terrorist organizations members, even though some of its members operate in countries where Hezbollah has been designated as a terrorist organization (e.g. Germany).

ABOUT THE ICT

Founded in 1996, the International Institute for Counter-Terrorism (ICT) is one of the leading academic institutes for counter-terrorism in the world, facilitating international cooperation in the global struggle against terrorism. ICT is an independent think tank providing expertise in terrorism, counter-terrorism, homeland security, threat vulnerability and risk assessment, intelligence analysis and national security and defense policy.

ICT is a non-profit organization located at the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC), Herzliya, Israel which relies exclusively on private donations and revenue from events, projects and programs.
